)	CHIEF JUDGE CRENSHAW
GEORGIANNA GIAMPIETRO)

GOVERNMENT'S NOTICE REGARDING WITNESSES FOR SENTENCING

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through the undersigned Assistant United States Attorneys and Trial Attorney for the Department of Justice, and in response to the Court's previous directive regarding the disclosure of anticipated witnesses for the sentencing hearing, respectfully submits that it does not presently intend to present live witness testimony at the final sentencing hearing scheduled for July 15, 2022. The government instead will rely on its sentencing submissions and supporting documentary evidence and the arguments of counsel. Should the government, however, find it necessary to call a witness to rebut any noticed defense witnesses or otherwise to correct the record, the government will promptly notify the Court and the defense of its intention to do so.

Respectfully Submitted,

MARK H. WILDASIN
United States Attorney
Middle District of Tennessee
